

HTTP Status Codes

What Those Numbers Actually Mean

@naseemkhandev

2xx - Success

Your request worked perfectly. Server understood and completed the action.

HTTP Status Codes

200 OK

Everything worked perfectly

201 Created

New resource created successfully

204 No Content

Success, but no data to return

@naseemkhandev

4xx - Client Errors

You messed up. The request has an error on your end.

HTTP Status Codes

400 Bad Request

Invalid syntax or data

401 Unauthorized

Authentication required

403 Forbidden

You don't have permission

404 Not Found

Resource doesn't exist

@naseemkhandev

5xx - Server Errors

Server messed up. Your request was valid but the server failed to handle it.

HTTP Status Codes

500 Internal Server Error

Generic server failure

502 Bad Gateway

Invalid response from upstream

503 Service Unavailable

Server is temporarily down

504 Gateway Timeout

Server didn't respond in time

@naseemkhandev

The Big 5 You'll See Daily

Know these and you'll debug
faster

HTTP Status Codes

200  Success - All good

401  Login required

403  Access denied

404  Not found

500  Server crashed

@naseemkhandev

Was this helpful?
Follow me for more

@naseemkhandev

